

Only Eat With Scushy Friends, Admonishes Rhinehart's Romantic Director Pickens

It's a fact that most Mamas refuse to tell their children that large, scushy, lazy people are the only truly enjoyable dining companions. They are witty and clever due to their quest to avoid even the minutest type of exercise. They are enchanting so as to charm their fellow couch loving cohorts into replenishing their R.O.C. Colas whilst they throw them another Moon Pie in the microwave for 15 seconds while they're at it. And now they are creatures of habit and their appealing personalities have become second nature to them -- making them utterly delightful at the dinner table.

So I'm going to charge you as conscientious connoisseurs to stop bringing those teeny-tiny uptight hyper Pilates pushers to eat with you and your Sugar Snookems at Rhinehart's Oyster

Bar. There is nothing more unromantic and unappetizing than one of your Dearly Beloved's skinny little girlfriends talking on and on about the wheat germ-tofu-yogurt doggie bones she lovingly prepared for her half-starved puppy-cat.

Instead, double date with an appropriately scushy and indolent couple to Rhinehart's $18.18 Dinner-for-Two Date Night next Thursday or Friday after 4 p.m.. And if you do, I'll be proud to share my table with you..

Don't Talk Turkey, Take Her to Rhinehart's Says Romance Director Buford Pickens

Turkeys don't have lips, but your Dearly Beloved does. And yes, sometimes they seem to be stuck in a permanent pookie-pout position. Plus it's often hard with her sparkly bubblegum lipstick and watermelon lip gloss to tell where her lips end and her chin begins.

But other times when she's calling your hounds out of the woods with a long strong two-fingered whistle -- you stop a moment and realize that between her persuasive pucker and her great pair of lungs -- you are a lucky man.

But what have you done for her flamingo pinks lately? Well, if you hope to see them curved and contented, why not treat them and her taste-buds to some Monday Night Spicy Boiled Shrimp at Rhinehart's Oyster Bar for only $2.99 a dozen.

And when you're done wiping her trembling hands with a Rhinehart's moist towelette -- take her parking out in the woods and teach her how to use your favorite push-pull turkey call.

Observe, State Your Feelings and Needs, Head to Rhinehart's Says Buford Pickens

The gallant men who run the Center for Non-Violent Communications never have to go to bed without having their backs rubbed. Why? Because they have a five-step formula for stopping an argument before it ever gets their wives' dander up. Here's how it works:

(1) I see you are holding a pair of scissors up to my favorite Realtree® SUV Turkey Vest.

(2) I feel despondent that you want to damage something that cost me a half a day's pay.

(3) I need to know that you are supportive of the fact that I passed out at my hunting club and didn't make it home last night.

(4) I would like for you to put those down and get me an aspirin and some Alka-Seltzer.

(5) I am willing to take you to a Romantic Monday Night at Rhinehart's Oyster Bar where you can have all the Spicy Boiled Shrimp you can eat for $2.99 a dozen.

Leave Your Dog This Mothers Day and Bring Mama to Rhinehart's Says Romance Expert

A Mama is even better than a dog. No she can't lick your face in one big swipe or howl in tune to the latest Brad Paisley tune -- but she can make biscuits so good they'd make a rabbit hug a hound dog. And she always seems to know just what to say to make you take your foot off your brother's neck and stop grinding his nose into the carpet fibers.

You forever try to remember to be reverently respectful to her, because you love her -- and because you know full well that in her eyes you are never too old to get what's coming to you.

So why not put the dogs in the pen and bring Mama to Rhinehart's for their $16 Mother's Day Weekend Family Style Dinner for Two special? Two of you can get your choice of Fried Shrimp, Fish, Oysters, or Chicken Fingers, or the Cajun Grilled Chicken and Shrimp with Cole Slaw and Homemade Fries plus each couple gets to split an appetizer of either Shrimp Spread or Chicken Wings for only $16. And since it's only $48 for six of you, you can bring her favorite, but rather peculiar cousin Mimi with you as well.

Don't Wear Frilly Panties, Take Your Mama To Rhinehart's Says Romance Expert Pickens

Many young ladies who move here from up North have concerns as to whether their Southern gentlemen boyfriends are real He-men or not. Here are some signs that the man you're seeing may secretly wear frilly panties:

- 1) You have never actually seen him open a beer bottle with his teeth.
- 2) His eyes don't light up at the mere mention of Mossy Oak® and Realtree® camo wear.
- 3) He hasn't ever thrown his half-eaten chicken wing at the television set when Simon on American Idol is talking.
- 4) He doesn't revere his Mama over everyone else and has no plans to take her to Rhinehart's Oyster Bar this Mother's Day Weekend.

With Rhinehart's $16 Mother's Day Weekend Family Style Dinner for Two Special, and his Mama (aka: the woman who went through several hours of painful laboring childbirth to have him) can each get their

Romance Director Pickens Says After She Shop-Vacs Take Her to Rhinehart's Date Night

The throwing of breakable objects is an integral part of a hale and hearty marriage and as a conscientious husband you should be careful to keep your living room well-stocked in preparation for those frequent and fiery love spats between you and your Little Snuggle Dumpling.

Also, in order to heighten and intensify the experience for your Sweetie Babe, before the purchase and placement of vases and other easily broken missiles, you should consider each item carefully for its shattering sound quality and inherent throw-ability.

And while in the heat of the battle (so to speak) take care to avoid the temptation of catching what's thrown at you or expressing your thoughts (such as that your dearly beloved throws like a sissy). And after she bandages all your cuts and finishes cleaning up with the new Shop-Vac you got her for Mother's Day, surprise her this Thursday or Friday by taking her to Rhinehart's $18.18 dinner-for-two Date Night.

Y'all can choose from any two of Rhinehart's Flaky Fried Shrimp Feast, their Fried Fish Dinner, or their Fried Oyster Fantasy any Thursday and Friday Night from 4 to 10 for only $18.18.

And with the money you save you can head back to the Dollar General for some infinitely tossable glitter-blue lava lamps.

Romance Director Pickens Says Clip the Cord And Take Her to Rhinehart's for 'Date Night'

Romance Director Pickens Says be Patient And Take Her to Rhinehart's for Date Night

Many of the problems in a marriage are caused by unrealistic expectations on the part of you and your spouse.

She, for example, might expect you to remember her birthday and anniversary every year when best-two-out-of-three is the most anyone should count on from any red-blooded male.

You, on the other hand, might become irritated when it takes her twice as long as your 10-year-old sister to clean and oil your guns. Perhaps you find yourself stifling a laugh at the angle she holds her fish gutting knife.

Well, before you end up accusing her of not being raised right and your mobile home is suddenly covered in broken bowling trophies and beer bottles -- take a deep breath and resign yourself to the fact that you are not just her lover, her friend, and her protector, but you are also her sometimes marital skills instructor.

So after you have warmly caressed her hand while gently showing her how to hold the fish gutting knife in her right hand while she gingerly inserts the blade into the fish's lower digestive hole -- remember to give her the special kind of reinforcement she needs by telling her you aren't sure who smells better, her or the fish.

And while her hands are still trembling, scoop her up and take her to a Romantic Monday Night at Rhinehart's Oyster Bar.

With Rhinehart's Spicy Boiled Shrimp only $2.99 a dozen after the two of you are done you can sneak your little Snuggle Dumpling off to the nearest Bait and Tackle and get her that Loewen Messer 822 with the delicate wooden handle and slightly tilted blade she's been hinting about.
